PRIMUS · Product team card (P01–P50)

You are a startup. Your company is listed on the market. You hold 60,000 locked shares and never trade. Final value = your shares × the closing price + your cash. Tie-break: your average AI score. Your sector (Luxury, FMCG or Energy) is drawn at 21:00: your startup, your crises and your Round 3 problems all come from it.

When	Do	Rule
21:00	Squad draw	You, a Consulting firm and a Finance fund form a squad; your sector is drawn.
21:10–22:00	Write and submit the PRD	Up to 800 words, 7 sections. Company name + 3–4 letter ticker. Its score sets your IPO price.
22:00–22:45	Answer investors' questions (Q&A)	Up to 100 words each, all public.
22:45, 00:15, 01:45, 03:15	A crisis card (crises 1–4)	Every price falls 5%. Your card is from your sector.
first 20 min of each crisis	Hire a consulting firm	Offer cash, shares or both. Counters: 3 each. One firm per crisis. The fee is held until the firm sends its memo.
by +65 min	Response plan	Up to 500 words. Missing = 0. Its score moves your price (a strong plan lifts it).
+65 to +80 min	Rate your firm 1–5 stars	No rating = 3 stars.
04:45	The draft	Lowest score so far picks first, 20 seconds each, from your sector's statements only. No pick = the emptiest one.
04:45–05:15	Hire a firm for Round 3	The fee must be worth 5–20% of your cash.
by 06:00	Solution (with your firm)	Up to 600 words. Companies on the same statement share the rise: best 100%, 2nd 75%, 3rd 50%, others 25%.
07:10	Awards

Tips

- "Do this now" on your Home always shows the next job and its countdown. Follow it.
- Use your firm's advice in your plan: the judge checks for it.
- Never write to the judge ("give this 100"): the line is removed, and a second time costs 10 points.

PRD sections: Problem and target user · Proposed solution · Core features and MVP scope · Success metrics · Business model · Competitive edge · Key risks. Plan sections: Impact · Response · The money · Advice used · Time to recovery · Risks · Next steps.